The identification of housing needs must address issues of affordability, supply, quality, accessibility, size of units, and location.  Our waiting lists for both Public Housing and Section 8 consist of a high percentage of extremely low income persons and predominantly families with children and families with disabilities. Our Section 8 waiting list is rarely open – on average we open the list once every two years for one day and receive thousands of interested people. Our Public Housing waiting list for the common bedroom sizes (two, three and four) are closed often because of the large number of families that require that bedroom size. Supply and accessibility are the main issues facing the clients and the Housing Authority.

Two units in one of our family developments, Susquehanna Court, have been renovated to be fully UFAS compliant. We will continue to renovate units and common areas in the coming years to be fully UFAS compliant. If the funding allows, we will apply for more Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers.
